

WHAT TO BRING

Pack your flexibility, humility, and readiness for a fantastic week!

Please bring:

- Work Wear - Clothes and shoes should be ones that can get dirty, sweaty, stained, painted, etc. You should include:
 - at least one pair of long pants
 - one long sleeve shirt (like an old button down)
 - closed-toe, firm shoes for work (tennis shoes)
 - knee length shorts
 - Rain jacket (you never know!)
 - sunscreen
 - a hat that keeps the sun off your head, face, neck
- Casual clothes for non-work times
- Toiletries (soap, shampoo/conditioner, toothpaste, toothbrush, hairbrush, etc.)
- Prescription Medications (inhaler, epi-pen, insulin, daily medication, etc.)
- Sunscreen
- sleeping bag or linens (there will be bunk beds)
- Pillow
- Towel/washcloth
- Bible
- A re-usable water bottle (nalgene, aluminum, etc.) to carry and use all week at sites
- There are no laundry facilities on site, so plan and pack accordingly.
- Worksite Dress Code for Adults and Youth:

We recommend the following clothes for worksites. Some agencies with whom we partner have specific rules about what to wear when visiting that agency.
- CLOSED-TOE SHOES: Always wear closed-toe, sturdy shoes—like tennis shoes—with socks. (no Tevas, Crocs, Chacos, Birks, flats, or flip flops at worksites).
- SHIRTS—t-shirts: All youth must wear shirts with sleeves. No tank tops, spaghetti straps, or low cut shirts.
- UNDERWEAR: Yes, please wear it. But no one should be able to see it. No underwear showing out of pants (pants must fit to waist).

- Please consider bringing:
 - board games, cards, etc. to play in your free time
 - some spending money for free day
 - frisbees, etc. for outdoor play
 - notebook for journaling
 - swimsuit (some worksites involve water or you may need a swimsuit for use during free day activity)
- Do NOT Bring:
 - Expensive or irreplaceable items (jewelry, special clothing, high price electronics, etc.); you don't want to lose it.
 - Lots of money; you don't want to lose it.
- Clothes/Shoes that can't get dirty or sweaty (you may get dirty or sweaty during recreation; you will also be working with art supplies during Bible Study times). Just save the fancy stuff for a different trip; you won't need it at DYM!
